McKINLEY JUBILEE!

mate of this lady, at Niles, Trum u l county, Ohio.

A special McKinley edition of THE DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL of this issue is printed and sent to every Republican newspaper in Ohio to show the Buckeye Republicans in what esteem the Oregon Republicans hold their great leader and Champion of Protection. Extra copies of the McKinley edition to send to friends can be had at this office. When it is considered that Oregon has had no campaign or election in 1893 the McKinley demonstration Saturday night was remarkable. One thousand JOURNALS will bear across the continent the hearty greetings of the thousands of Republican men and women who on Saturday testified to their love for the cause which Governor McKinley represents. The Republicans on the Pacific coast shake with stalwart legions who won the victories in Ohio and the other eastern states and pledge themselves if McKinley is their standard bearer in 1896 to roll up the biggest majority for protection ever given in Oregon. In the meantime the Democracy can join in the refrain of the Democratic orator who graced the occasion on Saturday evening at Salem by saying:

"Sound the loud timbrel, holler and whoop, McKinley's triumphant and we're in the soup!"

M'KINLEY IN 1896.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette bases big claims on McKinley's tremendous majority in Ohio. It says:

Protection is the issue for 1896. Its strongest advocate, its most accomplished exponent is Governor William McKinley, of Ohio. Senator Sherman and Governor Foraker nominated him Saturday night in Toledo and in Cleveland, respectively, as the Republican presidential candidate in '96. Yesterday's vote in Ohio seconds that nomination with significant emphasis. The Commercial Gazette, with a full realization of the significance of yesterday's victory, indorses the nomination of Governor McKinley for president. Protection is the logical issue. Governor McKinley is the logical candidate. To continue the logic of the situation, Ohio, which has sounded the keynote for '96, should have the Republican convention.

But the Republican national convention will not meet till June, 1896. Nearly three years hence.

DROWNED IN THE WILLAPA.

Despondency Drives a Woman to Suicide.

SOUTH BEND, Wash. Nov. 12.—The body of Mrs. Agnes Edgerton was found floating at the mouth of Willapa river this afternoon by a mail carrier from North River. She had undoubtedly committed suicide, as she had been despondent for weeks and had frequently stated that death alone could end her trouble. About two hours before the body was found she left the house of Mr. Troll and went to the Sea Haven wharf, carrying with her a piece of bread with which, as she said, to feed the fish. The cause of her despondency was the death of her only child two months ago. She had been renting furnished rooms to lodgers, but lately made an assignment for the benefit of her creditors. She has a sister in Chicago, and her husband, John Edgerton from whom she has been separated, lives in Clatskanie, Or. She stood well in society and her suicide is a shock to the community. The remains have been brought to the city and an inquest will be held tomorrow.

THE FUTURE OF HAWAII

Gresham's Letter Wholly Approved by Cleveland.

INTERVIEW WITH THE PRESIDENT.

He is Satisfied That a Wrong Was Done the Deposed Queen.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—James Hyde Pratt, of Albany, N. Y., is in the city. There is family relationship between President Cleveland and Mr. Pratt, Cleveland's grandfather having been a brother to Pratt's mother. Pratt had a previous acquaintance with Cleveland having often seen him while he was at Albany as governor of New York. Pratt also has relationship in the Hawaiian Islands and feels much exercised at the policy toward the islands enunciated in Secretary Gresham's letter. He drove out to Woodley this afternoon and had a half hour's talk with the president on the subject. As the result he learned that Cleveland approves thoroughly and wholly Gresham's letter and all contained in it. Pratt has lived much in the islands, and does not agree at all with Gresham's ideas or belief as to the facts in the case. His statement that deposition of the queen was accomplished by aliens is sufficient to discredit the whole letter to his mind, for he had knowledge that most of the leaders of the revolution were Hawaiian born, and that the parents of many of them were Hawaiian born, though of foreign extraction.

He urged also that the best natives approved the present government and only the disorderly element was amongst those who desired its overthrow. He stated to the president that in order to re-establish Queen Liliuokalani, it would be necessary to disarm every white man on the islands. He did not believe the queen could be maintained on the throne a day without the influence of armed forces or the presence of the United States. The present government, he argued, is in possession of all the arms and powers of authority, has its forces well organized and disciplined and is able to maintain itself against internal disturbances.

ACTION OF STEVENS AND WILTZ.
He then questioned the accuracy of the statement that Minister Stevens and Captain Wiltz were instrumental in serving the revolutionists and that the success of the revolution was dependent upon the aid they rendered. They did no more, he asserted, than was authorized by instructions of Secretary Bayard to Minister Morrill in July, 1887, for his guidance in a similar period of disorder. At this point the president asked Pratt whether he thought he had as good opportunities of information on the subject as the president after a careful investigation and study of the subject for eight months. Pratt rejoined that he thought he had since he had been in intimate relations, by correspondence and otherwise, with the islands for over 30 years. The president closed the interview by saying he had absolute faith in the accuracy of all the conclusions drawn by Gresham, and that Stevens and Captain Wiltz had committed an act of usurpation and had done wrong to a helpless power, which it was the duty of the United States government to undo.

The Best in the World.

Senator Henry C. Nelson, of New York, writes: On the 27th of February, 1883, I was taken with a violent pain in the region of the kidneys. I suffered such agony that I could hardly stand up. As soon as possible I applied two of Alcock's Porous Plasters, one over each kidney, and laid down. In an hour, to my surprise and delight, the pain had vanished and I was well. I wore the plasters for a day or two as a precaution, and then removed them. I have been using Alcock's Porous Plasters in my family for the last ten years, and have always found them the quickest and best remedy for colds, strains and rheumatic affections. From experience I believe they are the best plasters in the world.

CONVICTS WILL RAISE HOGS.

A New Departure by California's Prison Commission.

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Nov. 13.—At a meeting of the prison commissioners a resolution was passed which will result in placing the ranchers in competition with convict labor. The commissioners have decided to go into the hog raising business, and to begin at once by purchasing 50 sows to feed. The warden's reports show that owing to many restrictions which hedge an applicant for parole, only 15 convicts have petitioned to be released under the new law. Of these, only nine have been able to comply with all the legal requirements, and no action has been yet taken in the cases of these nine. Owing to the fact that Mrs. Worthington, the murderer of Harry Biddle in San Francisco, and a Portuguese woman, sentenced for murder from Mariposa county, are about to become mothers, the board has decided to let them be removed, at the proper time, beyond prison walls, so as not to place the stigma of having been born in a penitentiary on the innocent children.

POPULIST SUPPORT.

Third Party Mea to Vote With the Democrats.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—There is no doubt now that the Populists will support the Democrats in almost any form of tariff bill which may be presented. This was shown in the announcement made by Senator Allen, of Nebraska, when he said that he was opposed to a adjournment of congress because he wanted to see a bill passed modifying to a very large extent the present tariff. The significant part of Senator Allen's remark was apparently lost during the closing hours of congress, and it was merely stated that Senator Allen was against adjournment after the silver bill was passed. That he particularly pledged the Populist party to the Democratic plan of revising the tariff has been overlooked. It is important for those people, who are inclined to support the Populists, to know that so soon as these Populists enter congress they will betray them to the Democrats on such a vital question as the tariff.

THE INCOME TAX QUESTION.

Although the hearing before the subcommittee of the ways and means on the subject of income tax yesterday was of an informal character, that it was interesting was manifested by the presence of a number of leading members of the democratic party outside the committee. Hall, democrat, was the only speaker. He had evidently given the subject much thought, and gave numerous citations of eminent writers on taxation and economic subjects. The fundamental principle upon which Hall based his demand for an income tax was that every man should bear his proportion of the government expenses in the same ratio as he derives benefit from the government. Such a tax did not affect the distribution of wealth, and produced the change of prices. If congress attempted to provide for the deficiency in the revenue every year or two by tampering with the tariff, Hall said, it would continually disturb business. Under his scheme if a deficit was apparent the income tax could be increased, and in the same way if there was a surplus the tax could be decreased. Hall submitted an income tax bill which will be considered.

THE TARIFF BILL.

Difficulty of Securing Democratic Harmony is Increasing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—It appears that the chief embarrassment to the ways and means committee is to come, not from the articles upon which the specified ad valorem duties are to be reduced, but from the articles that are to be put on the free list. Altogether the lot of Wilson and his colleagues on the ways and means committee is not a happy one. With a score or more of influential gentlemen demanding a caucus for a consideration of the tariff bill, and various others declaring they will not vote for the measure if it makes drastic reductions on articles in which their constituents are interested, the difficulty of securing Democratic harmony on the measure, now being solved by the ways and means committee, is every day becoming more apparent.
